What year? _____ Last riding number(s) _____

If you ride/rode at non-NESC events, what classification and organization(s) do/did you ride with, please explain.

All youth riders (18 and under) will be assigned numbers followed by a "y". You must use the "y" as part you're your number. Some vet riders will have a "V" assigned as part of their number. Y's and V's must appear on your bike plates and backs. If your NESC card has a letter after the number, then you MUST use it.

Copies of birth certificates/driver's licenses are only required for applicants to the N.E.S.C. who were not members in 2011. Please send only non-returnable copies. If you were a full member in 2011 you will not need to send anything.

False or misleading statements and or answers on this or any other entry or NESC form(s) may result in rider suspension and or disqualification. Rider classification changes made within other organizations must be reported in writing to the N.E.S.C. within 10 days of the change.

The promoters and or the New England Sports Committee do not provide medical insurance coverage. Each participant must provide his/her own and must show written proof of such coverage in order to be eligible to ride.
